Should You Volunteer for ASB?

Before applying to serve with ASB, take a few moments to reflect on the opportunities that await you by joining the team of ASB leaders. You will need this info to finish the application if you decide to volunteer in one of our elementary after school programs.

- What days of the week/hours are you available?
- What part of town are you willing/able to commute to?
- What gifts/talents/abilities do you have to share?

Next read through the list of expectations below. Do these items describe you? Are any of them characteristics that you would like to “work on”?

Here is what we expect of our volunteers. ASB leaders are...

- ladies who are willing to observe the following 5 core values while serving with ASB...

COMMITMENT COMPASSION CONNECTION CONSISTENCY COMMUNICATION;

- ladies who CARE about others and want to make a difference in their lives;
- ladies who have wisdom/gifts/talents/abilities to share with peers and those younger;
- ladies who might be considering a career in counseling, life or athletic coaching, teaching, social work or other humanitarian occupations.

As representatives of After School Buddies volunteers must be ladies who

- are willing to demonstrate unconditional love and acceptance of others;
- WILL COMMIT to REGULAR and timely attendance each week or work as a team with others who will provide regular support/leadership;
- want to experience personal leadership development;
- will be willing to fulfill commitments for leadership roles;
- are willing to observe stated communication standards: using email/text and reading and responding to such in a timely fashion;
- will limit the use of cell phones and tablets for non-ASB communication during program time;
- are willing to observe modest dress code standards and refrain from use of inappropriate language and photos – especially on social media including Facebook, Instagram and Snapchat;
- will engage in truthful, accurate and fair communication that facilitates respect and mutual understanding;
- are not already TOO busy with other activities;
- have family support for this volunteer effort.

If these expectations describe who you are or want to be - then complete and return the application or better yet enroll online at www.afterschoolbuddies.org.
